

LEADERSHIP HANCOCK COUNTY

CLASS OF 2016-17 TEAM-BUILDING RETREAT

September 15-16, 2016 • Hancock County Public Library

Thursday

8-8:30 a.m.	Breakfast Meet your classmates and members of the board of directors of Leadership Hancock County.	All class members
8:30-9 a.m.	Introductions and an overview Meet your day chairs and other important people, including a founder of our organization, who will explain the history of Leadership and the part you will play in furthering it.	Steve Jones , president of the board; and Tom Seng , a founder of LHC
9-10 a.m.	“Interview with a Class Member: A Team-Building Exercise” A fun and enlightening ice-breaker for the class	Steve Jones
10-10:15 a.m.:	Break
10:15-11:45 a.m.:	“Your DiSC Profile: Revealing Your Personality Type and Learning to Work as a Team” An insightful study of your leadership traits. Your DiSC profile will reveal your leadership style and the qualities you bring to a team.	Chad Chalos , consultant, Community Health Network
11:45 a.m.-12:30 p.m.:	Lunch	All class members
12:30-1:30 p.m.:	“Building a Strong Team: Insights from the Experts” A blue-ribbon panel discusses the keys to building a successful team. Participants: Jim Cherry, chairman of the board of directors, NineStar Connect; Steve Long, president and CEO, Hancock Regional Hospital; and Retta Liven-good, president, Greater Greenfield Chamber of Commerce.	Moderator: Dave Hill , LHC coordinator.
1:30-4:30 p.m.:	Teamwork in Action: Scavenger Hunt You and your classmates, divided into teams, compete to complete a lists of quests. It’s not Pokemon Go, but it’s close.	Referee/ scorekeeper: Donnie Munden , vice president of the LHC board
4:45 –7 p.m.	Dinner Join us for a nice meal at Greenfield’s newest restaurant, Griggsby’s Station, and toast the winners of the Scavenger Hunt quest.	All class members

LEADERSHIP HANCOCK COUNTY

CLASS OF 2016-17 TEAM-BUILDING RETREAT

September 15-16, 2016 • Hancock County Public Library

Friday

8:30 a.m.:	Continental breakfast and networking Compare notes with classmates about what you learned on Day 1 of the retreat.	All class Members
9 a.m.-11 a.m.:	“Consensus Building: Getting Everyone on the Same Page” An immersive exercise exploring the art of collaboration and considering others’ viewpoints.	Ed Freije , retired principal, New Palestine High School
11 a.m.	Break
11:15-11:45 a.m.:	“A Feat of Engineering: A Team-Building Exercise” Working together, a team can engineer anything, even a tower of spaghetti.	Facilitator: Jesse Keljo , Hancock County Public Library
11:45 a.m.-12:30 p.m.:	Lunch	All class Members
12:30-1:15 p.m.:	“Don’t Get Burned! A Team-Building Exercise” You are standing on a fire-proof blanket floating in a pool of lava. How do you flip the blanket without meeting your fiery demise?	Facilitator: Cody Flood , Hancock County Public Library
1:15-2 p.m.:	“There’s a Solution for That: Winning Problem Solving Strategies” Not everything goes smoothly when you’re trying to complete a project. What to do when your team hits an unforeseen snag.	Barbara Roark , assistant director, Hancock County Public Library
2-2:15 p.m.:	Break
2:15-3:30 p.m.:	Wrap-up, evaluations and a look ahead Some final thoughts as we preview your next class day. We’ll tell you about some additional tasks going forward, and you’ll also fill out an evaluation on the retreat.	Steve Jones , LHC board president, and Kara Harrison , LHC board member